Funding has been provided by the government to increase children's participation in sports.

At Henry Prince we are:-

- Providing opportunities by holding after school clubs
- Working with Castele Consultancy to allow the pupils participate in a variety of sporting events
- Providing high quality CPD for staff
- Providing swimming lesson for Years 2,3,and 4.
- Provided support for Sports Day activities
- Increased the quality and the range of sports equipment in school to support quality outcomes
- Provided valuable transition activities for our pupils to engage with pupils who will attend the middle school with them
- Developed pupils' knowledge of healthy life styles and encouraged a want to engage in life-long participation in physical activity and sport.

Observations have been recorded of lunchtime and during lessons as well as comments made by visitors in school that support this view.

As a result, pupils have raised self-esteem raised emotional well-being, improved behaviour, supported our good attendance record, enhanced parental engagement, a number of pupils attend outside clubs and activities. Pupils arrange games activities during play times lead by young leaders.
